RE: Amended Judgement

Dear Clerk of Court:

I was sentenced Jan. 17th 2011 in Judge Autrey's court room. I was sentenced under my birth name, Antoine Samyell Reid. However, I legally changed my name back in October 2005 to Abijah Xhosa Deity in Washington County Missouri. This is verified in my pre sentence investigation report (PSR).

My problem is how to go about having my legal name recognized by the PCP. Well, I spoke w/ the Records Dept. here in the prison & was told to write to my sentencing court & request to have my judgement amended. Thus, my reason for writing. Can you please reply to this letter w/ step-by-step instructions of what to do in order to have my judgement amended so that my legal name will be recognized here in the PCP? What documents do I need to send you (if any)? Do I need to put my request in a motion form? Does it have to be notarized? Who must I mail it to? Thank you for your time. Please reply.

Sincerely,
Mr. Antoine S. Reid
